KATHARINE H. PARKER, United States Magistrate Judge:

In connection with the 25 redacted documents identified from the Poehling litigation and the three clawed-back documents that Anthem challenges based on privilege, the Court finds no conference is needed. To the extent the letter reveals privilege, those portions of the letter may be redacted and an unredacted version sent to the Court by email contemporaneously with the documents. Anthem has two weeks to respond to the letter.

In connection with Anthem's proposed additional RFPs, within two weeks of this Order it shall submit the proposed RFPs to the Court together with an explanation in a letter of no more than 3 single spaced pages as to why the RFPs are relevant (i.e., how do they relate to the elements of the claims and/or defenses in this matter) and proportional to the needs of the case given discovery conducted thus far and why good cause exists to serve them now. The Government shall have two weeks to respond indicating that (1) it does not object or, alternatively, (2) it objects in whole or in part and the reasons therefor.
